FIRST FOOTBALL RECRUITING WEEKEND
JUST COMPLETED AT UM

MISSOULA--

"We just completed our first weekend of football recruiting and the enthusiasm was tremendous," said University of Montana head football coach Larry Donovan.

Donovan and the UM coaching staff hosted several prospective Grizzly football players over the weekend, and the response and attitude of the athletes was very good, Donovan said.

"Our coaches are reviewing film of players from over the Northwest," Donovan noted. He also added that his coaches would be back on the road Monday (Jan. 14), visiting athletes in Montana and Washington.

"We are already realizing some of our goals," Donovan said. "We have several more campus visits set up for the next five weeks. Athletes will be coming in Sunday-Monday and Thursday-Fridays."

The official signing date for football is Wednesday, Feb. 20, 1980.
